Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

Eric Harvie School

acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2026-2027 school year:

Throughout the 2026–2027 school year, Eric Harvie School commits to deepening our understanding of what it means to live, learn, and be in good relationship.

Our learning will be guided by six Niitsitapi and nêhiyaw concepts: sâkihitowin, wâhkôtowin, wîcihitowin, aokakio'siit, miyo waskawewin, and Okkakiosatoo. These understandings will invite students and staff to think deeply about love and care, kinship and responsibility, the good energy we create together, wise awareness, walking through the world with integrity, and the importance of looking closely and looking again.

Through this work, we commit to moving beyond learning about Truth and Reconciliation toward considering how reconciliation is lived through our everyday actions, relationships, responsibilities, and choices.
